PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 112th CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION

Vol. 157

WASHINGTON, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 2011

No. 140

Senate

The Senate met at 10 a.m. and was called to order by the Honorable JEANNE SHAHEEN, a Senator from the State of New Hampshire.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Dr. Barry C. Black, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.

Eternal Lord God, we believe that You will never fail or forsake us, but help us to never take Your love and faithfulness for granted. Empower our Senators to be good stewards of the many blessings and of the responsibilities and opportunities You have given them. Lord, open their minds and give them a vision of the unlimited possibilities available to those who trust You as their guide. Incline their ears to hear Your voice and fill them with Your power, O Lord of Hosts. You are the King, eternal, immortal, invisible, who alone is wise. You deserve the honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The Honorable JEANNE SHAHEEN, led the Pledge of Allegiance, as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

APPOINTMENT OF ACTING PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will please read a communication to the Senate from the President pro tempore (Mr. INOUE).

The legislative clerk read the following letter:

U.S. SENATE,
PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE,
Washington, DC, September 20, 2011.

To the Senate:

Under the provisions of rule I, paragraph 3, of the Standing Rules of the Senate, I hereby appoint the Honorable JEANNE SHAHEEN, a

Senator from the State of New Hampshire, to perform the duties of the Chair.

DANIEL K. INOUE,
President pro tempore.

Mrs. SHAHEEN thereupon assumed the chair as Acting President pro tempore.

RECOGNITION OF THE MAJORITY LEADER

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. The majority leader is recognized.

SCHEDULE

Mr. REID. Madam President, following leader remarks, the Senate will be in morning business for an hour. The Republicans will control the first half and the majority will control the final half. Following morning business, the Senate will begin consideration of H.R. 2832, which is the Generalized System of Preferences Act that is a vehicle for trade adjustment assistance that we are going to be working on.

We are going to recess today from 12:30 until 2:15 p.m. for our weekly caucus meetings.

At 2:30 p.m. today, Senator HELLER will be recognized to deliver his maiden speech in the Senate.

We will work through amendments to trade adjustment assistance. I will notify Senators when votes are scheduled.

SENATOR LAMAR ALEXANDER

Mr. REID. Madam President, I see on the floor today my friend LAMAR ALEXANDER from the great State of Tennessee. I just received a news flash that he was going to relinquish his leadership position and stay in the Senate and run for reelection. I do not know all the reasons for his doing this, but I want the record to be spread with the fact that I have found LAMAR ALEXANDER to be one of the most thoughtful people I have ever served with in the Senate. There are many issues he gets no credit for that were resolved because of his ability to see the big picture.

We had this big issue dealing with the so-called nuclear option, as to what would happen in the Senate with some of our rules changes. He stepped in, completely out of the limelight, and because of his idea we resolved that issue.

There are many other examples such as that. He is a unique person in this body. He accomplishes a great deal and gets credit for not a lot, and that is unfortunate. But that is who he is and who he has always been. I know he will continue being a stalwart in the Senate. I look forward to working with him, but I look forward mostly to his sense of fairness, which he has been so very exemplary during my time with him in the Senate.

DON'T ASK, DON'T TELL

Mr. REID. Madam President, 60 years ago this Nation's Armed Forces were segregated by race. Thirty-five years ago women were not allowed to attend our Nation's military academies. Until today—in fact, last night at midnight—thousands and thousands of qualified, dedicated men and women were barred from military service or expelled from the Armed Forces because they were honest about their sexual orientation. Today I am glad to say the time has passed when Americans, willing to give their lives to defend this great Nation, could be turned away from service because of who they loved. Today, don't ask, don't tell is no longer the law of the land. For 17 years we have asked our soldiers to defend a flag that stands for liberty and justice for all, and then required some of those soldiers to keep who they were a secret. In too many cases we have robbed them of their right to fight for their country altogether.

Listen to this staggering number: More than 13,000 American
